——The improvement in the prices of cotton increased receipts yesterday.

——All the churches of the city, will be open for services to day.

——Register to-morrow if you have not already done so. It is your last chance.

——Sleep while it is called to-day, for after to-morrow night you will get none for a week.

——To-morrow the Board of County Commissioners will meet in regular session at the Court House.

——This is the week which will make journalists and telegraphers howl as they haven't howled in four years.

——The Rescue Fire Engine Company will hold its regular monthly meeting to-morrow evening at 8 o'clock.

——The list of awards of the recent State Fair has been completed, and will be given to the public in these columns as soon as the pressure of the election returns is taken off.

——John Betts, a Republican of this city got into a fight yesterday at Henderson, in which he was considerably beat up by a colored Democrat. It grew out of an old grudge.

——Tim Lee's pool selling last night was a failure for the reason that nobody attended. The suspicion seized the Democrats that the purpose of the pool selling was, after getting them to bet, to challenge them at the polls on election day.

——An intelligent citizen of Johnston county, who is now in the city, says that Hon. Jo. Davis' majority in that county will not be less than 1,000, and that Vance's majority will be between 500 and 700.

——Thousands of Radical lies will be circulated just on the eve of the election. Thousands will be told at the election. Believe nothing that a Radical tells you, but go right ahead and vote for Tilden Vance and the Constitutional Amendments.

——It is confidently believed that Radical emmissaries are already in our midst, prepared to buy election judges, stuff ballot boxes or resort to any other means to carry the States for Hayes and Settle. Keep your eyes open from now until the votes are counted out.

The rum-mills close up to-morrow evening at 6 o'clock, and will not be open any more until Wednesday morning at 6. This is in accordance with a very wise purpose of the law to prevent election drunks, which purpose, unfortunately, is never subserved.

——Attention is called to the advertisment of the Cape Fear, published daily at Wilmington by Cicero W. Harris, Esq., at $5 per annum. Mr. Harris has already made his reputation in journalism, and it is almost unnecessary to say that the Cape Fear is one of the best papers on our exchange list. Mr. Harris deserves a cordial support for his new enterprise.

Inspection of Registration Books.

Yesterday the registration books of the several wards of the city were under inspection, and all were at liberty to challenge the persons whose names appeared on the books. The books were all critically examined, and a great many persons were challenged. Notice was served upon all of these to appear and show their right to register and vote, and they will so appear to-morrow. The registration has been very full in all of the wards, and all the indications are that a very large vote will be polled next Tuesday.

In a Critical Condition.

We learn that Mrs Mat hews Hides of Wake Forest Township, who was in bed with her husband and child last Wednesday night when the second floor of the building fell in and crushed them to death, is in a very critical situation on account of the injuries which she received on the occasion. It is very doubtful if she will recover.

FRAUD.

BOGUS TICKETS IN THE EAST.

Designs Against a Free Expression of the People.

Information was received last night by Gen. Cox that in some of the eastern counties the polling places have been supplied with misprinted tickets, the misprinting evidently designed. For instance, the name of John M. Worth is printed Jonathan M. Worth; the name of John C. Scarborough is printed Jas. C. Scarborough, &c. These tickets were not printed at the NEWS office, nor were they sent out by the Executive Committee.

The State will be flooded by the Radicals with these misprinted tickets. No resort which is likely to secure a Republican victory will be left untried.

It is of the first importance that every ticket which is voted contains the names of all the candidates correctly printed.

Scrutinize every ballot before it is put in the box.

Freemen of North Carolina, be on your guard!

Close Up Your Business Houses.

We again most earnestly urge upon the merchants of the city the necessity of closing up their places of business on Monday next. The Board of Aldermen, at its meeting Friday night, passed a resolution authorizing the Mayor to request the merchants to close their stores, and we respectfully urge the two Tilden and Vance Clubs, at their joint meeting to-morrow night, to also pass a resolution making this request of the business men of the city. The merchants and their clerks could effect great good by such a step, and it is to be hoped that they will see the necessity of the step suggested.

What is said of merchants applies equally to men of all other callings. Tuesday should be a general holiday in the city, and every man should turn out and give that one day to work for his State and country, and for the restoration of honesty and good government.

Tim Lee Challenged as to His Right to Vote.

Yesterday the inspection of the registration books was in progress, and at the Court House challenging was lively. Nobody was more active in this than Tim. Lee; he challenged and challenged and challenged, and by and by the tables were turned. Presently Mr. Nick. Jones, challenged Tim, wanting to know by virtue of what authority he voted in the county and whether he had ever been naturalized. Tim was taken aback; he was indignant; he told Mr. Jones that he had been Sheriff of Wake county, but Mr. Jones said that didn't make a particle of difference, he just simply wanted to see his little naturalization papers The gentleman from Ireland went out in high dudgeon on the hunt for them and now he'll be in a pretty fix if he can't find them, or if he never had any to find. The case will come up at the Court House Monday evening at 6 o'clock. Reserved seats to the show 75 cents.

The Bottom Rail on Top.

A family in this city has a colored nurse in the shape of one of the "fine society ladies," all fixed up with her crimps, and pinback and furbelows and flounces; one who puts cologne on her handkerchief and writes notes to the "colored gentlemen" who wear box-toed shoes, standing collars and blue cravats. A few days ago she suggested to her mistress that the baby needed a buggy ride. "But," said the lady, "I can't afford to hire a horse and buggy for the purpose of taking the baby out driving, and so it will have to do without it." "Never mind about that," was the response, "I'll hire the horse and buggy and it won't cost you anything at all."

It was kind enough and shows the naturally good impulses of the race, but it shows withal that history repeats itself, and that we have again fallen upon the age when princes go on foot and beggars on horseback.

Speaking in House's Creek Township.

There was quite an assemblage of the people of House's Creek Township at their polling place yesterday, and they were well entertained by a speech from W. H. Pace, Esq., who had been announced to address them. From 150 to 200 people were present, and the effort of Mr. Pace, our friends are satisfied, was productive of much good.

Rev. F. M. Jordan.

This distinguished Baptist Evangelist will occupy the pulpit of Swain Street Baptist Church this morning and night.

"Angel of Night," is what Dr. Bull's Cough Syrup has been termed by parents, whose worrying and coughing children have been soothed and cured, and secured sweet slumber by using this excellent remedy.

Movements of Cotton in Raleigh.

Receipts for the week ending November 3d, 1876, 2,641 bales; receipts for same week last year, 1,539 bales; increase in receipts for the week this year, 1,102 bales. Whole receipts since 1st September to November 3d, 1876, 18,483 bales; whole receipts same time last year, 15,323 bales; increase in receipts this year to date, 3,160 bales.

The steadily increasing receipts is very gratifying and should our cotton buyers continue to offer inducements to ship to this market the receipts will be yet much larger. That we may appreciate the large increase in receipts we in our issue of 8th of October gave the receipts for the month of September for the past four years. We now give the receipts for the month of October for the past four years, with the price at which the months opened and closed.

Receipts for the month of October, 1873, 2,744 bales—market opened at 15½ and closed 12¾. October, 1874, 6,830 bales—market opened 13¾ and at 13¼. October, 1875, 9,045 bales—market opened at 12¾ and closed at 12½. October, 1876, 12,653 bales—market opened at 10¼ and closed at 10¼.

The market has been very active during the week and prices have materially advanced, and closes at 11 cts for middlings. This advance of one cent per pound is a great relief to our farmers, and we hope to see a yet farther advance.

Running a Railroad for the Republican Party.

The fish men of this city received notification Friday from their agents at Morehead City and Beaufort, that they need expect no fish Saturday (yesterday,) as Judge Settle was to speak that day at Goldsboro and all the trains on the Atlantic & North Carolina Railroad would be run to that point to carry excursionists free to hear the Grand Mogul of North Carolina Radicalism.

Now, pray, by what authority does Mr. Lot W. Humphrey do this thing? What right has he to prostitute the property of the State of North Carolina to political purposes? What do the people think of having all business and all regular trains suspended on one of their railroads for one day to the end that the negroes of Eastern Carolina may all be carried free to a political speaking? It is an outrage upon the State, and Lot Humphrey will be remembered for it.

The Orphans' Cotton Bale.

This, concerning the bale of cotton which was sold here as well as at other places in the State, is from the Wilmington Star: "We stated a few days ago that the famous bale of cotton, which has accomplished so much for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum, had been sold to the Masons of Fayetteville for a little over $100. We now learn that two-thirds of that amount was contributed by persons who were not Masons, and that, with the contribution of the two lodges there, the handsome sum of $130 35 was raised. This much, in justice to the never failing liberality of the community of Fayetteville, who are always among the foremost in every good word and work."

Mortality in Chatham.

A correspondent writing to us from Pittsboro, to renew his subscription to the NEWS, makes use of the following language: "Mr. B. R. Hamlet informs me that he has made seventeen coffins for children and youths under eighteen years of age, all of whom have died lately of diptheria within three miles of his house in Baldwin's Township. Several others have died of whom the writer knows, and just now Mr. Hobby, who is with us on business, receives a message that his little girl, six years old, died of the same disease since he left home in the morning. Strange to say it is confined almost exclusively to the whites."

Register! Register!

There remains but one day for electors to register. There can be no registration on election day, and those whose names are not already on the registration books must have them placed there to-morrow or else lose the privilege of voting. An entire new registration is not required, but those must register who have become of age since the last election, or who have moved from one county, township or ward to another. Let this important matter not be overlooked. Attend to it at once. Day after to-morrow will be too late.

Marriages During the Week.

Matrimonial jobing was not very lively last week, only 7 couples having fallen victims to it. Three of these were whites and four colored:

TO THE BUSINESS MEN OF THE UNITED STATES.

Every industrial and commercial interest of our country is languishing. Neither prudence, industry, nor experience any longer receive their legitimate rewards. While the sources of individual and national prosperity have been drying up, and the value of all kinds of property shrinking in a corresponding proportion, the burdens of taxation, through peculation and wasteful expenditure, have been steadily increasing. Unnecessary and improvident public buildings have been undertaken, our public lands, as well as our national credit, have been squandered upon railway jobbers; offices and public trusts have become articles of a commerce in which cabinet ministers have participated and which the Executive protects.

These facts are notorious and alarming, and are the natural and inevitable results of conspicuous administrative incapacity at Washington and of official corruption throughout the land.

A change in the character of the men and the policy of the federal administration is an imperative public necessity. To tolerate the follies and the crimes of the Republican officials by deliberately prolonging their power is to make ourselves parties to their guilt.

In obedience to the dictates of a great national necessity the Democratic party has nominated for the Presidency one whose name is identified by memorable triumphs with all these measures of administrative reform for the want of which the country is now in distress. His long public career has been a continued illustration of economy in the public expenditure, a jealous care of the national credit, a courage ever ready to defy the giant of corruption in his strongholds, the widest experience in public affairs, and an unequalled command of the resources of statesmanship. His signal success in purifying the government of New York City; his able and successful war upon the canal ring of that State and its confederates; his reduction of its State taxes about one-half in less than two years and his own unsullied personal character, satisfy us that he is preeminently the man for our chief magistrate in the present crisis of the country; and we, therefore, recommend to your cordial and zealous support, as the approaching election, the electoral ticket representing Samuel J. Tilden and Thomas A. Hendricks:

Good News From the West.

A friend writing from Asheville under date of the 1st, sends this cheering intelligence: "Everything is moving well in this direction. The west will do its duty, notwithstanding the lying Radical thieves who would have it believed there is dissaffection here. Let the centre and east come up as I know they will do, and the State will go for Tilden and Vance by a majority not dreamed of. Cebe Harris, the inevitable, is going through this section with the corruption fund."

Threatens to Bring Them Back.

The Asheville Citizen says that Gen. John C. Gorman, of this city who is superintendent of the convicts on the Georgia and North Carolina Railroad, threatens to bring them back to Raleigh if Col. Fain, President of the railroad, and others, don't work for the Democratic party. We reckon the General don't like the west much anyhow; there is mighty little political congeniality up there for him.

Speaking at Apex.

The Democrats of White Oak Township met in mass meeting on yesterday, and were addressed first by the Hon. John Manning, of Chatham, in a stirring speech of about two hours in length, devoted principally to the Constitutional Amendments. It was a clear exposition of the whole subject carrying conviction to the hearts of all who heard it.

Mr. Manning was followed by Maj. A. M. Lewis, of Raleigh, who produced a very decided impression upon his hearers, treating upon the general political issues of the day, but more especially of the grand issue which have grown into governmental affairs since the Republican party has held dominance in the country. After Maj. Lewis, came C. M. Busbee, Esq. who spoke principally upon national issues, urging the necessity for reconciliation and reform.

Maurice Q. Waddell, Esq., of Chatham, the gentleman of whom Gurney Sam has so vivid a recollection in connection with the convention campaign of last year, was the next speaker. He spoke in his own peculiar and effective manner, aptly illustrating by pleasant anecdotes the points designed to be made.

The fourth and last speaker was R. H. Jones, Esq., who devoted himself chiefly to the corruption of the Republican party. He threw the party and its individual members some heavy shots and told the people some wholesome truths, urging them to connect themselves with the Democratic party, which is the party of honesty, good government and of eternal feeling.

After the speaking, six men who had hitherto been Republicans, announced their purpose to act no more with that party, but to cast in their destinies with the true and liberty loving men of the country.

FROM GREENSBORO.

Politics High—Stores to Close Tuesday—Working Man's Club—Speech by a Colored Man—Competition for the Best Workers.

[Special Correspondence Raleigh News.]

GREENSBORO, N. C., Nov. 4, '76.

Politics is high here, and some kinds of political meetings are held every night.

Every merchant (except little confectionaries,) has signed an obligation to close all business till 4 P. M. on the day of election, (the 7th) being the great issues involved and the interest manifested on their part in both parties. This is all should be and we hope every town and city of the State will do likewise.

Thursday night there was formed here a Working Man's Club, and last night they had a public torchlight parade, and an address by one of their own members, after which a colored man was called, who responded at length in much sensible advice to his people, assuring them that they have the same right now, under the laws to vote as they choose, as any white man has, and advised them so to do. As for him, he expected to exercise that right, and would publish his ticket. He believes in putting in office honest men, men who have the interest of the people and his people at heart, and does not like exorbitant taxes, from the people, to enrich the pockets of the few. He said much more, advising his people to honesty, and said to advance they must work, work, and do all in their power to gain the esteem of the white people.

To-day all the Tilden and Vance clubs of the county assemble here and compete for a nice silk banner, (now ready,) to be given to the club showing the largest number of Conservative registered voters.

Great Speech at Waynesville—Republicans Leaving the Sinking Ship—Vance Gains Expected in Nearly all the Western Counties.

[Special Correspondence Raleigh News.]

ASHEVILLE, Nov. 2, '76.

At Waynesville, Haywood county, day before yesterday, Maj. Marcus Erwin, late U. S. District Attorney, addressed a large concourse of people from that and several adjoining counties in opposition to the election of Settle and Smith. The speech had a telling and damaging effect upon the prospects of the Republican State ticket. Numbers of white and colored Republicans were present, who greeted the speaker with applause throughout his speech. The Radicals are demoralized and disorganized in Haywood, and it will give Vance from six to eight hundred majority. A proportionate increase of our majorities is confidentially expected in counties west of that. C.

Go to see A. C. Sanders & Co. before selling your cotton. They always pay more for cotton than any one else. If you want any groceries this is the place to buy them at low prices.

James P. Hayes has a large stock for furs and will pay the highest prices in the State this season. See price list.

VOTE RATIFICATION.

VOTE FOR THE AMENDMENTS

VOTE the white man's ticket.

THE Ring candidate—Hayes.

THE Ring breaker—Tilden.

GO TO the polls with the Ang'o-Saxon race

VOTE for the candidates of the white men of North Carolina.

VOTE Ratification—and save the East from negro rule.

DON'T vote with the carpet-baggers for Tom Settle.

TILDEN is a friend of the South. Hayes is an enemy of the South.

VOTE for Jarvis, who saved the State from the special tax bonds.

ONE more charge and victory is ours; let this be the watchword of Democrats and Reformers on the 7th of November.

WHO WILL VOTE FOR TILDEN AND HENDRICKS.

Every true Southern man will vote for Tilden and Hendricks, because they lead a party that favors the South.

The farmers will vote for Tilden and Hendricks, because the triumph of the Democracy will decrease the taxes upon their land, improve the value of their crops, and relieve them of their mortgages, which are really ruined by recent excessive taxation.

The workingmen will vote for Tilden and Hendricks, because their election will tend to insure fair wages and low taxes, and leave to the workingman a better margin of saving from his weekly pay, and, by the development of the industries of the country, which economy will insure, secure to him steady employment.

The merchants will vote for Tilden and Hendricks, because the policy of economy in the Government will tend to cheapen transportation, decrease taxes upon all business, and promote the prosperity of the mercantile classes.

The clerks will vote for Tilden and Hendricks, because the permanency of their employment and increase of their compensation depends upon the commercial prosperity of the country, and the country cannot be commercially prosperous so long as values are unsettled and economy in government is not practiced and the Rings continue to rule the country. Every faithful clerk has a cherished ambition to become a principal in the concern he serves, but this ambition must be defeated so long as the present unsettled condition of affairs continues to exist.

The planters of the South will vote for Tilden and Hendricks, because the prosperity of our section depends upon driving out the carpet bag plunderers who have consumed their substance, and because, as land owners, they cannot escape a full share of the burdens of government.

Commercial employees will vote for Tilden and Hendricks, because their wages depend upon the prosperity of trade, which can only result from decreased governmental burdens and consumption, and because, in such economy, rests their only hope of promotion in mercantile career.

Bankers and capitalists will vote for Tilden and Hendricks, because the constant disturbance of values and uncertainty of investments under Republican rule has tended, by decreasing national credit, to involve them in financial embarrassments.

The colored voters of the South will vote for Tilden and Hendricks, because experience has taught them the color line drawn by the Radicals means the plundering of their race by a tribe of cormorants, who trade upon mock sympathy with them, while they grind them to earth and deprive them of the opportunity of receiving just wages.

The new voters of 1876, who form at least six per cent. of the total vote, will vote for Tilden and Hendricks, because in the future prosperity of the country lies their opportunity for success. They know that the prosperity of the country depends upon economy in the Federal government and in all public affairs, without which economy and reduction of taxation increased profits in general business are impossible. They want as fair an opportunity to advance their fortunes as their fathers had before them, and can find this only in support of governmental retrenchment and reform, and administering a just rebuke to the party of extravagance and public plunder.

GOV. TILDEN has reduced the tax in New York nearly $8,000,000. That is practical reform. Can Hayes show any such record during his three terms as Governor?

CITIZENS of the State of North Carolina, do your duty on the 7th of November and the Old North State will give 10,000 majority for Tilden, Vance and Reform.

MOVE forward as a solid phalanx for Tilden, Vance and Reform. Let corruption and fraud be driven into the earth. Put down carpet-baggers and office-holders.

CITIZENS of all nationalities and creeds, who desire reform and economy in the public service, will cast their votes for Tilden, Vance and Reform.

FARMERS and producers, who desire better prices for their products, will do well to look at the true issues of the campaign and then vote for Tilden, Vance and Reform.

THE triumph of Tilden means national credit founded on the solid basis of a united people, a frugal administration, honest and just government.

VOTE for Engelhard, Worth, Kenan, Love, Scarborough—true and gallant men, who are devoted to North Carolina and her interests.

IT becomes the duty of all clubs to see that their districts poll their full vote for Tilden, Vance, and the Amendments.

REMEMBER that it becomes the duty of every citizen to be energetic on election day, or all the work of the past months will have been in vain.

VOTE for Vance, the beloved of the people—the hero, patriot and statesman.

IN regard to the responsibility of the erroneous tickets, heretofore referred to, we wish to state these facts: A printed correct form of tickets was delivered to the business manager of the NEWS, with directions to have a certain number printed, the proof read, &c. The tickets were printed and delivered. After nearly all of this lot had been sent out by the Executive Committee, a mistake was discovered, and on the night of the 23d of October the Secretary of the Committee asked for and obtained an impression, which he read, and finding some typographical errors, he marked them, and ordered another lot of tickets to be printed. These errors were corrected as marked on the proof-sheet. There were other errors in the impression which the Secretary failed to detect then. The Secretary did not require the original proof to be sent to him, as he did not consider himself a proof reader.

VOTE THE WHOLE TICKET. To scratch the ticket is to be untrue in your allegiance to the Democratic party, and to imperil all. You may dislike some of our nominees; you may have preferred other men; but bear in mind that Zebulon B. Vance and Thomas J. Jarvis, Tilden and Hendricks, and all the rest of the standard-bearers chosen to lead us in this grand struggle for the right, are the choice of the Democratic party, and are entitled to your vote. Remember, too, that the Constitutional Amendments are measures of reform inaugurated by the Democratic party of North Carolina in the interest of the whole people, and they are entitled to your vote.

REMEMBER the grave issues involved in this contest; and let every white man to-day resolve to be a white man, in deed as well as in color. Let him try to do his full duty; work to-morrow and Tuesday, as he has never worked before; give his whole time from now until sunset Tuesday to the redemption of his State and the nation from the rule of dishonest and despotic men.

How remarkable the solicitude of the Republican organs that "none but the best men shall be nominated for office this year."

"When the devil was sick,
The devil a monk would be;
But when the devil got well,
The devil a monk was he."

CITIZENS and independent voters will do well to look into the official facts and figures of the Republican Administration, State and Federal, and then will joyously cast their vote for Tilden, Vance and Reform.

IT is our Centennial year; let us prove to the world that we are good citizens and desire honesty and reform. Let all prove it by voting early, and seeing that the full vote of the election district is polled.

The Third district of North Carolina ought to return once more Mr. A. M. Waddell.—N. Y. Herald.

It will. And we will send six more Democratic Congressmen with him to Washington.

THE success of Tilden and Vance means peace, reconciliation and fraternity among all our people of every class and race.

THE Boys in Blue are to be reorganized and the old sectional hatred revived. "Let us have peace."

IN the final hour of the campaign see that every citizen casts his vote for Tilden, Vance and Reform.

IF your neighbor be too weak and infirm to go to the polls, obtain a carriage for him.

THE election of Tilden will insure an honest and capable administration of public affairs.

EVERY man to his post, and forward for the final charge to victory on the 7th of November.

VOTE Ratification—and give the State a Constitution made by white men.

DON'T vote for Billy Smith, or any other man who would run negroes with dogs.

IF every man does his duty Samuel J. Tilden and Zebulon B. Vance will be elected by vast majorities.

TWENTY years is too long for any political party to have control of the Government.

STATE CANVASS.

Stand by the regular nominees.

Down with all independent candidates

Everywhere the Radicals are conceding the State to Tilden and Vance.

But a feeble blast comes now from Billy's horn.

Ferguson's splendid cartoon, the "Gubernatorial Race," is looked upon as the best hit of the campaign.

A grand Democratic rally takes place Monday at Ivey's Bluff, Robeson county. Columbus county will be largely represented.

Be sure to see that every Conservative-Democrat voter is at the polls in your township. If any are absent put some one in a buggy and send after them.

No sooner was the Indiana election over than Sitting Bull Morton fled to the Pacific coast. It was Morton that raised the bloody-shirt and gave the contest its sanguinary aspect. Does any one believe he would have skulked from the field had he not known that all was lost?"

POLITICAL NOTES.

Governor Tilden is so fond of economizing in public affairs, that he will not have been two years President before the country will be startled and delighted with his restorative administration.

The Boston Herald says that if the entire Republican Congressional ticket in Massachusetts should be elected, it would be the weakest delegation ever sent to Washington.

It is announced that Tom. Thumb has come out for Tilden. Physically Mr. Thumb is to be reckoned among the light weights; but his vote will be just as heavy as that of the most obese waddler of the Fat Man's club.

The Republican nominee for the vice-Presidency, Hon. W. A. Wheeler, has been interviewed by a Tribune reporter. He considers the question of the "solid South" the overshadowing issue of the canvass involving in the possibility of a Democratic victory, "not only the safety of the public credit, but the whole question of national progress or retrogression." He believes that the ruling classes in the South have not accepted the constitutional amendments in good faith, and that they still hope for a release from them.

At Cooper Institute, New York, Monday night, Joseph Putilzer, a distinguished German and former partner of Carl Schurz, gave that hireling orator such a rasping as he never received before. He raked him fore and aft, exposing his inconsistencies and tergiversations in the most unmerciful manner.

Some of General Wade Hampton's open air meetings in South Carolina are opened with prayer and a hymn, composed for the campaign, "God save the State," is sung by hundreds of women and children, white and black, accompanied by a parlor organ. At one of the meetings there was a procession of over 1,500 men and nearly 500 women on horseback.

A gentleman writing from Cincinnati to a friend in Richmond, Va., city says: "From papers received I see that the glorious cause of Democracy has earnest supporters in your section, and that the 'Solid South' will be heard from in the proper manner on the 7th of November. You may look out for good news from Ohio about that time too. The Republicans here are the sickest looking set of men to be found anywhere. All they can do is to hang around their headquarters with their hands in their pockets and wearing long faces, indicative of the fact that to them the melancholy days have come."

The radical party in Mississippi is rapidly going to pieces. The two most influential colored men in the State are openly supporting Tilden and Hendricks; and the Holly Springs Reporter says that "Senator Bruce and Secretary of State Hill have both left the Republican party and declared for the Democratic nominees."

Secretary Fish had a critical matter of diplomacy concerning the Irish address Etiquette, he said, required that it should come through the British Minister; but the Irish were not willing to put it through in that manner. The address was in a dilemma, but somebody, to relieve the 'situation," stole it out of the White House; but that don't take away the impression that has gotten abroad amongst the 'broth of boys"—the eagle seems to be frightened by the British lion.

A BIG CONVERT.

Judge Rodman of the Supreme Court has Joined the Tilden and Vance Army.

[Tarboro Southerner.]

The great cause of reform is growing rapidly in favor all over the country. Judge Rodman, one of the original pannel Republicans, has come over. Judge Rodman told Judge Fowle that he would vote for Judge Settle, as they were on the Supreme Court bench, but that he would vote for no other Republican.

Mr. Jo. Chancy, a respectable citizen of Washington, is our informant.

The game is up. There is no doubt of the triumph of Tilden and Reform. But the victory should not merely be made certain. It should be overwhelming. Let the people carry for their candidates and their cause those five or six doubtful States whose votes will give them a majority of two to one over Hayes and corruption.

THE ELECTION.

Mecklenburg.

This old county, the cradle of American independence, will roll up a majority of at least 350 for Tilden and Vance.

Watauga.

Is reported as being solid as the South for Tilden and Vance.

Alleghany.

From this county comes the most cheering. Everything and everybody is for Vance and dead opposed to Radicalism, civil rights and corruption.

Ashe.

This county has heretofore been very evenly divided between the two parties, with a slight preponderance in favor of the Republicans, but there have been enough withdrawals from Radical ranks to turn the scales in favor of the Democrats. Our friends there count on a majority of 100 to 150. By turning out their full vote, and with Republican accessions, a Democratic victory is looked for.

Anson.

Little but loud, will largely increase her hitherto small Democratic majority. Kuklux Ingram and his followers won't begin to stem the tide. Anson is set down for a Democratic majority of 200.

Swain.

Though young, will set a good example to her elder sisters. Settle won't get 40 votes in the county.

Graham.

Will be true to the memory of her lamented and illustrious namesake. The Radicals will not be able to muster a corporal's guard.

Haywood.

Reliable information from this county induces us to place Vance's majority there at 500 to 550.

Henderson.

Our information from this county indicates a very close and doubtful contest. A very small majority either one way or the other will create no surprise.

Fourth Congressional District.

It is now estimated that this District will re-elect Hon. J. J. Davis by a majority ranging from 1,500 to 2000. All of "Lie like-hell"—Ike Young's lies have recoiled upon him.

Fifth Congressional District.

We are afraid to make an estimate of Scales' majority in this District for fear being, and naturally so too, thought wild in our figures Kuklux Jim. Boyd hacked early in the canvass and went home disheartened.

REPUBLICAN FABRICATIONS.

The Present Occupation of the Administration at Washington.

[Special Despatch to the World.]

WASHINGTON, Nov. 1.

The great number of persons here, holding office or otherwise, specially interested in the Presidential election makes the subject a daily topic, and the interest in the result is increasing every day. All the enthusiasm and confidence are on the part of the Democrats. The department officials seem utterly cast down, and it is reported that many of them are actually refusing to pay their ordinary bills, with the idea of having something to get out of town with next spring. The news received here from all quarters is most encouraging for the Democratic cause. It may be, however, set down for certain that until the day of election the Administration, instead of attending to the public business, will be busy concocting falsehoods against Mr. Tilden and the Democratic party, and making up bugaboo stories to be telegraphed abroad in order to impose upon the people. The latest stuff of this kind is to revamp the report of Postmaster General Reagan to Mr. Davis before the war finally closed in April, 1865, in which he gave his views of the terms he then sought to make, and pretending that these opinions constitute an issue in this contest. It is a perfectly safe statement to say that three-fourths of the Southern claims seriously pressed upon the Government for payment are owned by Republicans. The only advertisement after the war offering to purchase Confederate bonds emanated from the "truly loyal" and ring bank of Jay Cooke & Co. in this city, and it is a known fact that Republican office-holders here are carefully holding on to such paper. Gov. Hayes is under no pledge to repudiate or reject Southern claims, and is warmly supported to-day by three-fourths of the Washington lobby. The great schemes of Southern internal improvement which the Tribune and Murat Halstead say will bankrupt the Government were introduced to the last Congress by Senator Windom of Minnesota, and Ulysses Grant, the present Radical President.

The Bayonet Campaign in South Carolina---Federal Soldiers Disgraced by the Political Managers.

[Special dispatch to Baltimore Sun.]

CHARESTON, S. C., Nov. 1.

Almost every hour brings tidings of some fresh developments of the plot to carry the election in South Carolina by the bold and unscrupulous use of federal power, civil and military, against the democracy.—The latest outrage is the arrest today of twelve Democratic citizens of Pickens county on a charge of intimidation. A trustworthy eye-witness telegraphs that the only intimidation was the lie given to one of the radical speakers. It was stated that twenty-three men are to be arrested in Pickens, which is one of the strongest white counties, having 1,800 white voters to 500 colored.

The circumstances of most of the recent arrests prove their intensely partisan character. An hour is generally chosen when there is a gathering of the white and colored Democrats and the ignorant negroes beholding the whites arrested by the troops in the act of uttering Democratic sentiments, naturally conclude that such sentiments are hostile to the government. At Ellenton, Aiken county, the leading white Democrats were arrested in the midst of a barbecue given to the colored people, and taken off before they had anything to eat, although the offense charged was alleged to have been committed nearly two months before.

Senator Patterson, who is well understood to be the ruling spirit of the bayonet campaign, arrived in Columbia to day, and had long interviews with Chamberlain and Gen. Ruger. Crimes against colored Democrats are of daily occurrence in the lower portion of the State.

A negro who declared for Hampton was attacked and mortally wounded in Orangeburg yesterday. At White Hall, in Charleston county, a woman was stabbed on Monday for praising Hampton, and at Red Top Church yesterday two colored Democrats were stabbed and one killed and the other desperately wounded. Still no troops can be spared for this section of the State. The Democratic Executive Committee has issued a request for closing all places of business throughout the State, to enable people to devote their whole energies to the struggle for honest government.

How the Arrest Pan Out in New Orleans---The Democrats Taking a Hand.

The New Orleans Picayune of Tuesday last has the following in regard to the arrests of Democrats in that city on the charge of false registration:

"The Radicals are disgusted with the result of the affidavit dodge. There was no resistance to arrest yesterday and up to 12 o'clock not a single case of false registration had been detected. The parties on whom warrants are served are instructed to report at the Marshal's office the day after service is made. Saturday morning there were thirty-eight persons who appeared before Commissioner Southworth on summons from the Marshal. Every one of these accused persons was discharged, it being conclusively shown that the charge against them were false. Chief Deputy Marshal Stockton states that he has not received any warrants in addition to the 800 which have been served or which are now in the hands of the 40 deputies."

The Picayune adds: "The Democratic registration committee will file between to-day and the election affidavits in all cases where Radical frauds have been discovered, about eight or nine thousand in number, which may be swelled to eleven thousand. They will, however, exercise more discretion than the Radicals and make charges only upon accurate proof of fraud."

"The detective and canvassing department of the Democratic registration bureau has been so systematized and is so well organized that the testimony which has been collected to substantiate charges of fraudulent registrations of the most convincing character, and thousands of names will thus be stricken from the books."

The Picayune also explains the plan resorted to by the Republican leaders in New Orleans to deprive the Democrats of their votes. They sent through the post-office advertising circulars to every voter who had been registered in New Orleans in 1874. They did this more than twenty days before the revising registration of 1876 closed. They did it just after the usual numerous changes of residence on the 1st of October, and just before the persons so moving could have time to register anew. Whenever the advertising circular was returned, on the ground that the person to whom it was addressed was not found at the place of address, it is now understood that an affidavit has been made charging such person with fraudulent registration in eighteen hundred and seventy-four, and that warrants of arrests are issued in this cheerful way.

Proofs that Tilden Will Be Elected.

[From the N. Y. Sun, Nov. 1.]

For the past four months we have been proving that Mr. Tilden ought to be elected President. The great campaign is drawing to a close; the argument is pretty well exhausted; and we now propose to give a few reasons why Tilden will defeat Hayes on Tuesday next:

The history of the country shows that, from the administration of Jefferson down to the present hour, the political party which carried a majority of the House of Representatives at the election held in the middle of the Presidential term, never failed to elect the President two years afterwards. There is not one exception to this rule; and certainly when it is the party of corruption and fraud which is to be turned out, and the party of honesty and reform that is to be let in, the pending contest is not likely to vacate this old rule. Now for its application:

In the Forty-third Congress the Republicans had a majority of one hundred and eight in the House.—Two years ago the Democrats elected a majority of seventy to the present House. This great change unmistakably foreshadowed the triumph of the Democrats in the great contest of this year.

The result of the Western elections in October assured the success of Tilden. West Virginia, Ohio and Indiana have always voted for the Republican nominees for President. Candid members of that party admitted that if they failed to carry two of those States in October, they would have no hopes for Hayes in November. Early in the canvass they abandoned West Virginia, and then staked their all on Ohio and Indiana. They worked desperately to secure Ohio for Hayes, and toiled with the energy inspired by despair to wrest Indiana from Hendricks—The returns astounded the Republicans and electrified the Democrats. West Virginia went pell-mell for Tilden and Reform. Hendricks bore off a splendid victory in Indiana.—But poor Rutherford! He got the Cincinnati nomination because his friends promised 30,000 majority in Ohio for the Republicans in October if he were on the ticket; and lo, he sneaked out of the State with a small majority in his favor on the State ticket, and two hundred majority against him on the aggregate vote cast for members of Congress!

We hold the Republicans to their admissions of three months ago that the party that carried two of the October States would surely win the battle in November. In truth, there is not a Republican that knows much on the subject, who does not feel sure that the October elections killed Hayes and Wheeler as one dead.

Since their defeat in Indiana, a large and intelligent class of Republicans admit that the Presidential candidate who carries New York will certainly be elected. Now, though we have not a doubt that after the contest is over it will be apparent that Tilden did not need the thirty-five votes of this State to place him in the White House, nevertheless, we will accept the situation as defined by the Republicans. To please them we will concede that the candidate who prevails in this State in November will deliver the inaugural from the east front of the Capitol in March, and we assert that every New York Republican possessing a sufficient amount of knowledge to form an intelligent opinion on the question believes that that man will be Samuel J. Tilden.

Ten days ago the last card which the Hayes men were playing in this losing game was the rebel claims, which they said amounted to about $2,500,000,000, add would surely be paid if Tilden was elected. This baseless assertion was undoubtedly making an impression; and therefore Tilden trumped the demagogue trick by his bold, manly, patriotic letter.

The ordering of troops to South Carolina to save that State was only the preliminary step in a programme that originally contemplated an attempt to carry half a dozen States for Hayes by the bayonet. But the fiery flash of popular indignation has terrified Grant, old Father Taft, noisy Zach, who puts the screws to the office-holders, and Slippery Don Cameron, to whom the facile Hayes owes his nomination; and they have abandoned all hopes of salvation by means of the army.

The result in Indiana undoubtedly threw the supporters of Hayes back upon New York as their forlorn hope. With chattering teeth and quaking knees, they concede this. Now, deducting our opinions from the very best sources of information, we assure the friends of reform that the Tilden electoral ticket will receive a majority of the votes cast outside of the city of New York, and that the majority in the whole State will be at least 50,000. Let the advocates of reform in other States not bother their heads about New York, but move immediately on the enemy's works in their own States.

The signals of distress thrown out by the advocates of Hayes at all points of the compass during the past two or three weeks, and particularly within the last three or four days, prove conclusively that the tide has turned against them, and that their rotten craft is about to go to the bottom.

Meeting of Foreign Ambassadors at Constantinople—The French Chamber of Deputies—Montenegro Accepts the Armistice—The Armistice Unconditional.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 4.—The foreign ambassadors met at the residence of Sir Henry Elliott, the British ambassador, yesterday, to settle upon a method of determining a demarcation line between the belligerent armies.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—After debate on the bill for a cessation of prosecutions against communists, which Dufours offered and Gambetta supported the Chamber, by an overwhelming majority, voted to proceed with the discussion of the clauses of the bill. The issue is supposed to involve the resignation of the cabinet.

LONDON, Nov 4.—Montenegro accepts the armistice on the same terms as Servia.

It is stated that the Austrian ambassador at St. Petersburg has been ordered to go to Livardia, and it is rumored that the Turkish Grand Vizier will go there also on a confidential mission.

A dispatch from Belgrade to the Times confirms the statement that the armistice as accepted by the Porte is unconditional. The official announcement is two months armistice from November first, hostilities to cease immediately, both armies retaining the positions occupied upon receiving the notice. It is understood that there are no other conditions and that Montenegro has also accepted the armistice.

NEW YORK.

Beecher's Time Extended—Another Conflict.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—Judge Lawrence, sitting in Supreme Court chambers, has granted an order extending the time of Henry Ward Beecher to answer the amended complaint of Francis D Moulton twenty days.

The Herald's London special says that a rumor prevails that Russia will demand the withdrawal of Turkish troops from Servia, which Turkey cannot assent to, and thus a conflict will ensue.

Perils of the Rail.

WHEELING, W. VA., Nov 4—Nine cars and a locomotive were precipitated through a bridge, a distance of thirty feet, on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, two miles east of Moundsville. Engineer Washington Hamilton was killed and an unknown man on the engine was seriously injured.

Centennial Continued.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 4.—Fifty cent admissions to the Centennial Exhibition continues to Nov. 18th.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

WASHINGTON.

The Franklin not Heard from Yet—No Confession from Tweed.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 4—Weldon O'Neil has been appointed marshal for Kentucky.

The Navy Department has no news of the Franklin. Navy circles are of the opinion that she encountered the recent cyclones off the Atlantic coast, and being one of the oldest vessels in the navy, and not very seaworthy, there is no telling how long her arrival may be delayed.

The State Department contradicts the report that it has a statement or confession made by Tweed.

FOREIGN.

The London Stock Exchange—French Politics.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—There has been much fluctuation on the stock exchange during the week, which in the early part was of an unfavorable tendency in consequence of Eastern affairs. The announcement of the conclusion of an armistice produced a great improvement. Since Thursday an important advance in prices has occurred, and the majority of stocks attained their best points for some weeks. The continental bourses during the last three days have also been very buoyant.

A Reuter dispatch from Versailles says: "Since yesterday there has been a compromise between the supporters and opposers of the Gatineau bill for the cessation of the prosecutions against the Communists. The nature of the agreement is not stated but in to day's sitting of Chamber of Deputies a new bill, proposed as a compromise, was adopted excepting an article transferring to juries the trials of offenders.

NEW YORK.

Pool Selling—Row Between Whites and Negroes in Jersey City—Quick Trip.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4—Pools sold last night as follows: General result in favor of Tilden, 3 000 to 2,400; 300 to 240; 150 to 125. New York—Tilden 100 to 37; $1,000 even bet on Tilden getting 20,000 majority in the State; $100 to $80 that Tilden's majority in New Jersey will not reach 7,000

While the colored clubs from Jersey City were returning home after a Republican parade, disbanded last night, a row occurred near Debrosses street ferry. The whites used paving stones, brick-bats, &c. The negroes used pistols and dirk-knives. Wm. J. Merriman was stabbed in the left breast. The wound may prove fatal. Thomas J. Fisher was shot in the right leg; James Norton was shot in the left breast and two others were slightly wounded. None of the colored men are known to be injured, nor were any of their number arrested.

The White Star steamer Britannia anchored on the bar at 1 a. m. Saturday, having completed the fastest passage on record, 7 days, 13 hours and 11 minutes, mean time from Queenstown to New York.

Railroad Accidents.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 4.—A passenger train going west on the Ohio & Mississippi Railroad collided with a freight train this afternoon near Shoals, Indiana, killing engineer Scott and fireman Kilfer. Some of the passengers sustained slight injuries.

LOUISVILLE, Nov. 4—A collision took place this morning on the Louisville, Lexington & Cincinnati Short Line Railroad, near Pee Wee Valley, between a wild engine and an express train bound south, killing Ginther, the engineer of the wild engine, and seriously injuring two firemen and an express messenger.

Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 4—For the South Atlantic, north and east winds; stationary or higher temperature; stationary or lower pressures and cloudy or partly cloudy weather will prevail

The County Candidates.

The canvass of the county candidates closed yesterday as to the county outside the city. The speaking was at Panther Branch The crowd was orderly, but not large. The canvass throughout has been conducted, generally speaking, with good feeling, only two or three "hitches" having occurred and they not of importance.

Revenue Collections.

During the past week revenue collections in this district amounted to $11,912 52. These are the collections for each day of the week:

Monday, $1,597 97; Tuesday $3,622.08; Wednesday, $1,782.91; Thursday, $2,751.36; Friday, $957 53; Saturday, $1,200.67.

A kerosene lamp exploded in No. 353 West Fourteenth street yesterday morning, causing the house to be set on fire. It was extinguished by the police.—N Y. Herald.

Pratt's "Astral" oil is absolutely safe under all circumstances, and burns in any lamp, and costs no more than common kerosene. Julius Lewis & Co., hardware merchants, Raleigh, N. C, sole agents for North Carolina.

"To my Customers and Friends: I receive three times per week—Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday night—Heckler's celebrated Sausage, which is offered to those desiring it at reasonable prices. Persons desiring good Sausage will leave their orders before the Sausage arrives, and it will be attended to. S D HARRISON.

The recent decline in the price of coal at the auction sales in New York enables us to sell at extremely low rates. Peters Brothers, Portsmouth Virginia.

Forestalling Disease.

When we see that death is so often preceded by a fatuous disregard of the symptoms of approaching disease, should we not be warned against the folly of neglecting effectual measures when called for in our own case? Assuredly we should, and upon the first manifestation of ill health or decay of physical vigor, seek the aid of medicine. The purifying influences upon the system of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters entitle that medicine of many virtues to the highest consideration as a preventive, and it cannot be too strongly recommended as a means of arresting the progress of malarious fevers, dyspepsia, constipation, liver complaint, kidney and bladder troubles, gout, rheumatism, and other disorders which in their inclemency are far more easily overcome than in their maturity—albeit, the great alterative has repeatedly demonstrated its power to vanquish their worst phases.

Mrs. F. Morrell, Bangor Me., July 2, 1873, writes: "Six months ago my friends thought me in unable, suffering from Weakness, Disordered Stomach and Fever. The doctors gave me no benefit. I was persuaded to try Dalton's Liquid Extract of Beef and Tonic Invigorator; after using three bottles I began to improve, and today feel perfectly well."
